

Year 5 Relationships

God made people for relationships

Genesis 1. After God had created the world, He said....Now I will make human beings. They will have minds to think and know and love me and I will put them in charge of this world, to keep it in order.

First, God made the man Adam but Adam was lonely, so God made the woman Eve to be his wife, so they could plan and talk and laugh and love together.

They were to have children to help them in the task that God had given them.

Relationships.

To be able to relate well with other people, what kind of person do you have to be?

Think about the kind of things/qualities you like your friends to have.

Relationships.

A few years ago, Pope Benedict came to England and he spoke to teachers.

He told them to ask the children in their schools to think about this question.

What kind of person would you like to be?
What kind of adult are you going to become?

Relationships.

What does the Church mean by a virtue?

A virtue means a good quality that causes people to help each other and to act for the good of their families and friends, rather than just be thinking of themselves.

Relationships and Sex Education.

Relationships.

Kindness

Is showing you care by doing something that will make life better for others.

Courtesy

Is being polite and having good manners.

Reverence

An awareness that life is Sacred. Life comes from God, and will return to God. Living life with wonder and faith.

Respect

We show respect by treating others with courtesy.

Truthfulness

Is being honest in what you say and do.

Relationships.

Forgiveness

Is giving someone another chance when they have done something wrong.

Joy

Is an inner sense of peace and happiness.

Trust

Is having faith in someone or something. Believing that good will happen.

Assertiveness

Is being positive and confident. You are aware that you are a worthy person with your own special gifts.

