Headline Data from RSHE Parent & Carer Consultation

Did you know that all primary schools are recommended to teach sex education and that parents continue to have the right to request that their child is excused from those areas of sex education that fall outside of the science curriculum?

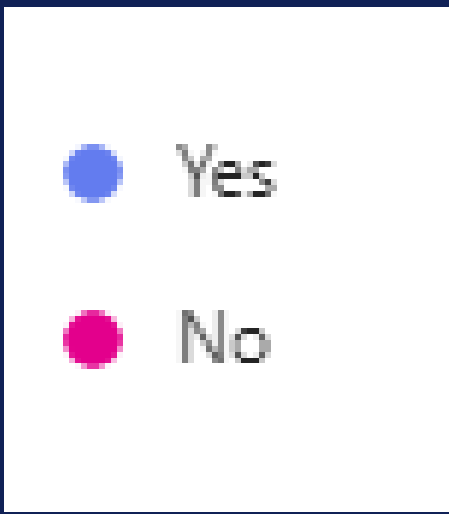

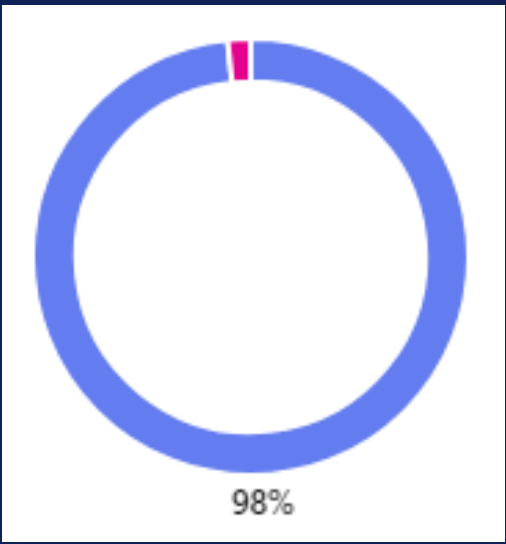

How confident do you feel about talking to your child about relations, growing up and how their bodies change and develop?

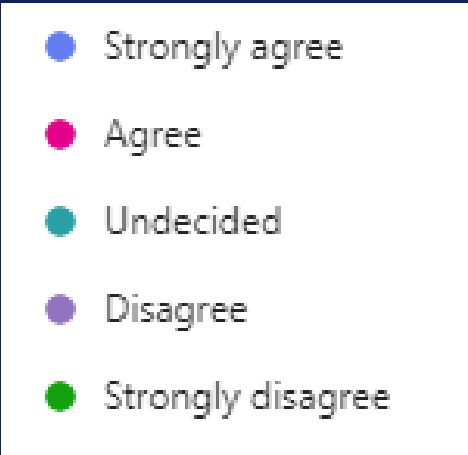

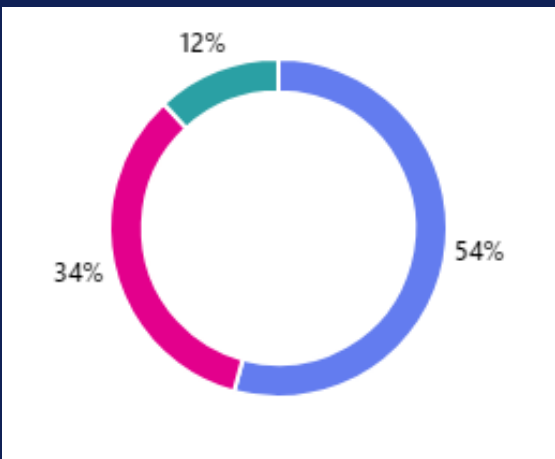

Do you understand and accept that a parents role is as the 'first educator' of a child on matters related to teaching human sexuality?

100% Agreed

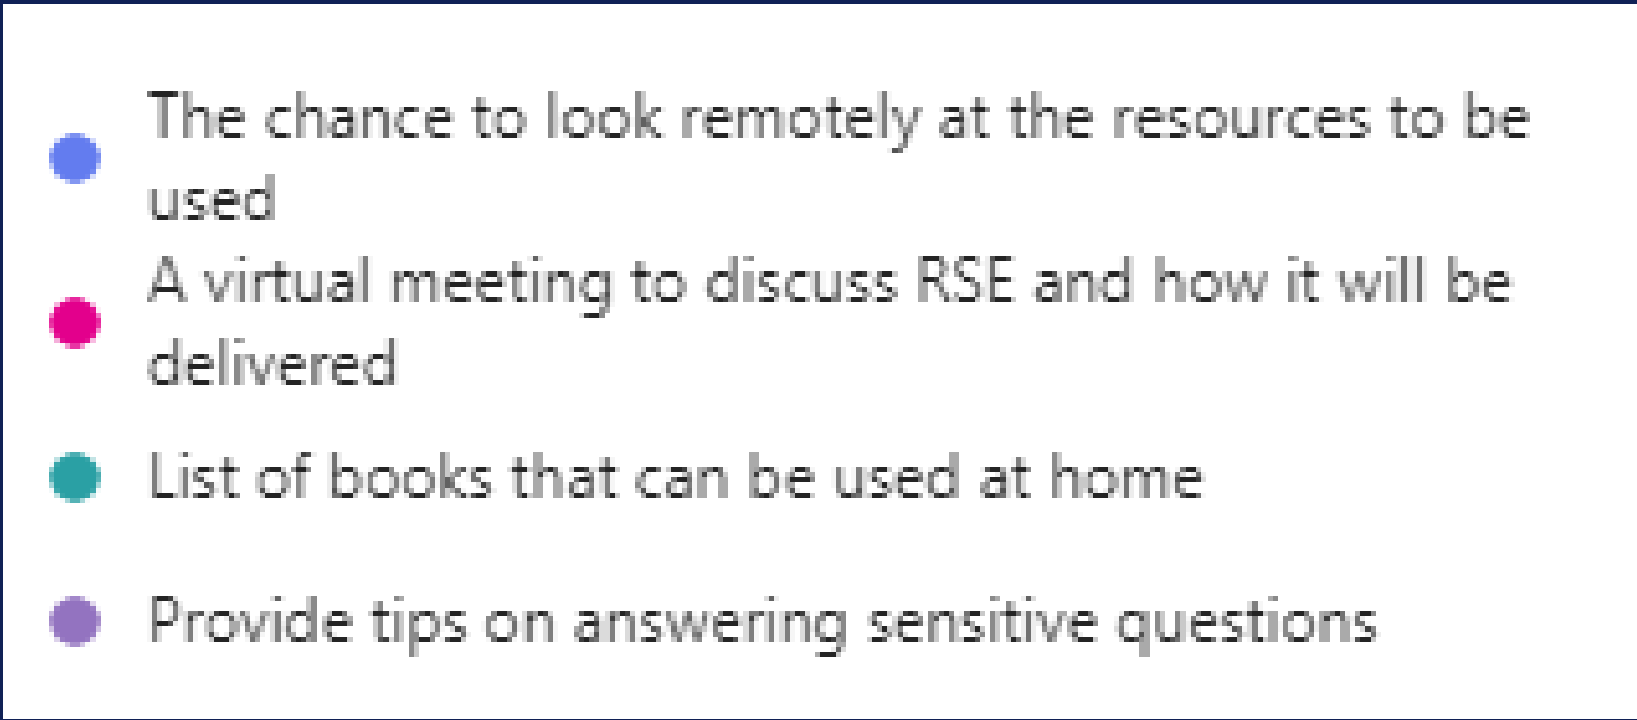

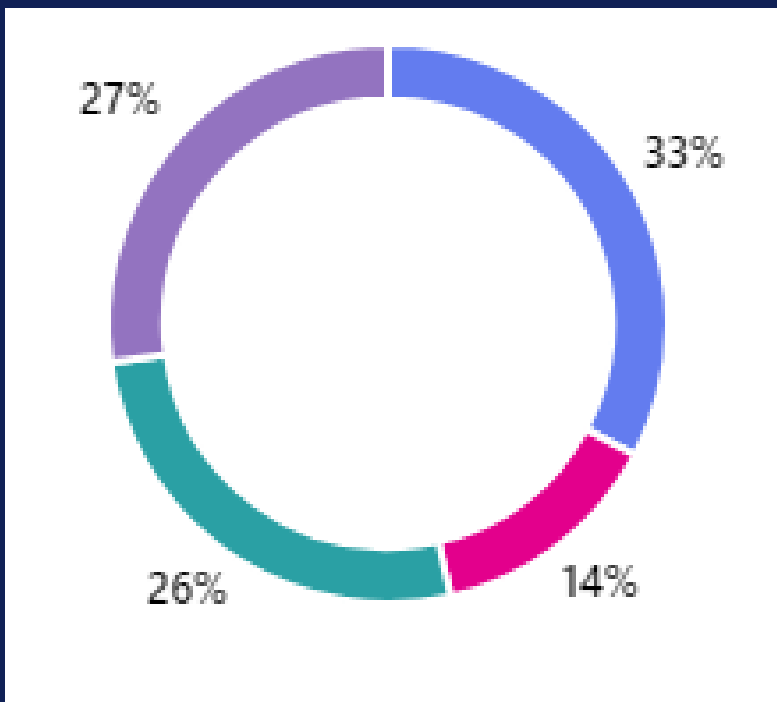

Do you think it is important to discuss internet safety in relation to RSE?

I trust my school's judgement in delivering this programme.

In order to explore more about how Relationships, Sex and Health Education is taught in our school, how can we support you to work with your child in this area of learning?
